The wedding will take place at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith in Avelon avenue and will be a large affair. Miss Smith is one of the belles of the Berkeley set who goes in for athletics and dancing with equal zest and has been interested in a number of charity day morning from San Francisco.

The many friends of Capt. and Mrs. George H. Jamerson are delighted to learn that Capt. Jamerson has recently been appointed adjutant of the 2d Infantry, relieving Capt. Charles S. Capt. and Mrs. Samuel A. Price, Jr., passengers on the transport Sherman, were the luncheon guests Wednesday of Lieut. and Mrs. Benjamin F. McClellan in their quarters in the cantonment.

The "charity ball," which will be given at the armory in Honolulu as a benefit for the Army Relief Society, on January 18, will be one of the largest social affairs of the new year. At a meeting of the officers and ladies of Fort Shafter last Monday assignment was made of the 500 tickets allotted for distribution at the fort and a supper committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Malone, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Hartshorn, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Black. This affair will be larger than the benefit given at Fort Shafter last year, for it was decided at a meeting at the Young hotel to combine the branches of the association of Fort Shafter, the Artillery District, Department Headquarters and the Medical Corps and to give two big charity balls, one on the 18th of January and another on the 19th under the management of the enlisted men for the enlisted personnel of Oahu.

A quick way to cool a sickroom is to wet a crib sheet with cologne, hang in a draught of air or shake the sheet slightly while wet.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Dec. 17.—Tuesday evening was a popular night for entertaining in the 1st Infantry garrison, when many attractive suppers and dinners were given preceding the hop in the pavilion. Miss Welcome Ayer was a charming hostess at one supper, entertaining for 17 guests. Between the courses of the delicious supper, which was served at small tables, the gentlemen progressed, adding an element of enjoyable informality to the occasion. The guests were the Misses Anne Carpenter, Edith Patton, Mary Bonesteel, Elizabeth Pattison and Elizabeth Sears, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Capt. and Mrs. Harry Knight and Lieuts. Frank Riley, Robert Snow, Otis Sadtler, Frank Schneider, John Smith, Edward Rose and John Simmons, and Mr. John Macaulay.

The dinner of 10 covers given by Capt. and Mrs. Clyde Crusan on Tuesday was a delightful affair. Pink and white were chosen for the color scheme of the prettily appointed table, these tints being evidenced in the graceful centerpiece of pink carnations, Shasta daisies, and dainty "Baby's Breath," and also in the crystal candlesticks supporting pink shades. Covers were placed for Col. and Mrs. D. L. Howell, Mrs. Howell Clinton, Capt. James Lord, Maj. and Mrs. Edmond Butts, Capt. and Mrs. George Kumpe and the host and hostess.

Capt. George de Grasse Catlin entertained at dinner on Tuesday in honor of Lieut. and Mrs. Gustav Gonser, the 1st Infantry's newest bride and groom. Red was used effectively in these table decorations, with a flat arrangement of red flowers on the cloth, about the base of the red-shaded candelabra. Covers were placed for Lieut. and Mrs. Gonser, Miss Esther McMahon, Mr. Le Grand Cannon, Lieut. Charles Bankhead and the host.

Lieut. and Mrs. Rawson Warren were hosts at dinner on Tuesday, when they entertained for eight. Red was the predominant note of this perfectly appointed table, around which were seated Capt. and Mrs. William Chitty, Lieut. and Mrs. William McCleave, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hine mon and Lieut. and Mrs. Warren.

White flowers and silken white candle shades made a dainty effect at the dinner given by Maj. William S. Guignard on Tuesday when the guests were Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Daly, who are recent comers to the 1st Field Artillery; Maj. T. N. Horn, Mrs. Henry Lantry, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vandever, and Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph Daly. The party later appeared at the 1st Infantry hop.

On Wednesday evening an unusually well attended and greatly enjoyed hop was given in the Mounted Service Club, which was later followed by an informal supper. Quite a number of dinners were given previous to the hour for the dancing, the several parties taking part in the pleasant affair.
